Greetings from the new Rector

The Rev'd Dr Thomas Plant

"It is good to be here." Those were the words with which I prefaced my thanks at the end of my licensing last Monday, and forty-eight hours later, they still hold true. Thank you for your kind welcome. I greatly look forward to celebrating our first round of Sunday services together today, and to getting to know everybody soon.

On the reverse of this pewsheet, you will find a full list of services, and I will soon be ready to make home visits. Please feel free to contact me by either of the means below, noting that my day off will be Friday.

Let us follow our patron saint's example of valour, lifting high the Cross to combat the evils that afflict our world and our souls, and calling the people of England back to the ancient Christian faith. St Margaret of Antioch, pray for our mission in Iver Heath!
